VCI Elections

New Delhi

Respected sir,

Subject: Non-receipt of ballot papers by the practitioners in Karnataka.

Karnataka Veterinary Association wishes to bring to your kind notice about non-receipt of ballot papers by majority of the registered voters in Karnataka Veterinary Council (KVC) and Indian Veterinary Council (IVC). Many of the veterinary doctors have complained to Karnataka Veterinary Association that they have not received the ballot papers. Since the last date for sending ballot is fast approaching, many registered voters are expressing doubts about the genuinity of the election process.

In Karnataka hardly 15% have received the ballot papers. We request you to kindly look into the matter and send the ballot papers immediately. The Karnataka Veterinary Association also urges your self to explore the possibility of postponing the elections to conduct the same in more transparent way.

Thanking you

President

Karnataka Veterinary Association

No.: GVC/15/3251-54/2009

Kindly Attention To

Date: 19/11/2009

To,
Dr. Anup Bhaumik,
The Secretary,
Veterinary Council of India, 'A' Wing, Room No. 288, 2nd floor,
Plot No. 25, August Kranti Bhavan, Bhikaji Cama Place,
New Delhi- 110 066.

Sub: -Election of eleven members to VCI, 2009-10.

- Ref :-
1. Your communication F.No 10-3/2009/4080-4110, dated 28/08/09.
 2. This office letters (A) GVC/15/1218/09, dated 17/08/09.
(B) GVC/15/1255/09, dated 02/09/09.
 3. Telephonic conversation with Secretary, V.C.I.

Dear Sir,

In continuation to the above, it is unfortunate to find that in spite of the attempts enlisted in above references, we find the mention of only 560 members on the latest electoral roll published by the VCI. Over 1000 members will have to forego their right to vote for the premier institution - VCI. It more painful to write that the relevant information and documents were already submitted on 17th Aug. 2009 but was not acknowledged.

On telephonic inquiry, majority of our enrolled members from different districts has not received ballot papers. So do needful and make arrangements to send ballot paper to our registered members of Gujarat Veterinary Council and give justice to our state council.

Thanking you.

President
Gujarat Veterinary Council
Gandhinagar
